

POSITION REQUIRED: EPIDEMIOLOGIST (RE-ADVERTISED)

The Infectious Diseases Research Collaboration (IDRC) seeks to hire an Epidemiologist to be based at the Head Office in Kampala with frequent travel to the field/study sites. IDRC desires to hire a budding scientist with keen interest in malaria research.

Key duties and responsibilities:

- Lead a comprehensive surveillance program
- Lead the malaria diagnostics research project
- Participate in scientific meetings and contribute to the development of research concepts
- Participate in protocol development and amendments as required.
- Maintain communication and links with all IDRC PRISM and Global Good Investigators, the Ministry of Health, and district health officers in the study districts.
- Support project data analysis and updating the data on the website
- Participate in the writing of manuscripts and progress reports

Qualifications and other desirables for the job:

- Must have MBChB
- Must have a Masters Degree in Clinical Epidemiology, Public Health or Medicine
- 3 years progressive work experience, research experience and or experience working in a Malaria research setting is an added advantage.
- Good computer skills (database management and other Microsoft programs)
- Good communication and interpersonal skills.

How to apply: Typed letters of application together with current CV, 2 reference letters from past employers and copies of academic certificates should be delivered to:

The Human Resource Manager, Infectious Diseases Research Collaboration (IDRC),

P. O Box 7475, Kampala, 2C Nakasero Hill Road or email us: admin@idrc-uganda.org

This advert can also be found on the IDRC website www.idrc-uganda.org. Deadline for receiving applications is 17th January 2017. Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.

Those who had already applied for this position need not reapply.